

Matt Young
Curriculum Director, Summit ESC

matty@SummitESC.org
330.945.5600 ext. 513922

Matt has been in the education profession for 24 years and is currently the Director of Curriculum and Instruction at Summit ESC. He was an educator for 17 years at Copley High School, teaching college prep and Advanced Placement (AP) levels of chemistry and physics. Following his teaching career, Matt served as High School Assistant Principal and Principal at Copley High School for three years before spending three years as the Middle School and High School Principal for the Cuyahoga Heights Local Schools.

In addition to being Summit ESC Director of C & I, some of the services that Matt provides to districts are as follows:

- OTES, OPES, and OSCES Supports for School Districts
- Instructional Leadership Supports for Administrators
- Curriculum Mapping
- Incorporating Rigor into Content Areas
- Alignment of Instructional Practices