

A Day of Differentiating UP!

With Richard Cash, Ed.D.

The Summit Educational Service Center is pleased to host Dr. Richard Cash. Dr. Cash is an award-winning educator, author, and consultant/coach, who has worked with schools throughout the United States and internationally. His educational experience ranges from classroom teaching, building and program administration, curriculum and professional development.

A Day of Differentiating UP your instruction is about so much more than simply tailoring materials and activities to different students. It's about deeply engaging every learner.

Learn how to create rigorous, concept-based lessons and units for students at every grade level. You will be given opportunities to practice designing authentic, real-world learning experiences that build motivation, strengthen creativity, and improve achievement.

In this session, participants will:

- ❖ Know specific techniques for differentiating UP the classroom.
- ❖ Be able to design rigorous learning options.
- ❖ Be able to infuse critical reasoning through sophisticated levels of questioning.
- ❖ Participants will be able assist students in developing unique and creative products.
- ❖ Understand the concepts of effective teaching and efficient learning processes.
